A big thank you to all the following people for giving up their time to help make this event possible.

Timekeepers, Linda Pillet, Colin Kindred, Robin Weaver and Brian Webber. Robin Weaver for organising the road closure with the local authorities and liaising with residents. Colin Harris, Chris Sampson, Kat Bohacova, and Robin Sidgewick for sweeping the road. Bob Bush for signing on. Tony Sheppard and David Miller for organising the car park. Darren Rule and James Rush for pushing off. Gary Johnson for crowd control at top of hill. Patrick Crew, Marshal @ Church Lane. Roger Rush and Stewart Ambrose for photography. Ken Watkins pre-event and post event press coverage. Martin North, Steve Barnes and Hayley Upton for organising the Kitchen. Sudbury Town Council Community Wardens for providing road closure on the day. David Fenn and Ashton Dyson for manning the result board. And finally to the ladies who provided the home made cakes, Angie Lesslie, Lindsay Hobden, Mary Fenn, Angela Weatherley, Kylie Shepherd and Kat Bohacova. Golly, with a team like that what could possibly go wrong.

Angela and Stephen Weatherley for donating the Trophies for the Juvenile riders.

LifeCycle UK for sponsoring the Individual and Team prizes.

Robins Row for sponsoring the Hill Record.

EISBERG for part-sponsoring event; donation of beverages, drinks bottles and clothing for participants.

Thanks also to all the riders and spectators for helping to make this such a successful event. We look forward to seeing you all again next year.
